The Oregon School Public Relations Association (OSPRA) is a professional association representing schools, school districts, educational associations, consulting agencies and organizations. OSPRA is a state affiliate of the National School Public Relations Association.

OSPRA is excited to offer these benefits for membership. We understand that Oregon school districts are unique and people in various roles are responsible for communications. Your membership provides you with the following benefits:

- * Access to the OSPRA Web Site resources
- * Notification of job opportunities in public relations
- * Discounted registration rate for OSPRA's fall and spring workshops
- * Crisis assistance from experienced professional colleagues
- * A network of professionals in school public relations who understand your specific needs and concerns.

OSPRA continues to strive to be the state's leader in school-community relations. Please join today to keep your district/organization on top of today's communication challenges.
